

the informer

Labour Studies gets grant

This photo represents a change of pace for our photogenic principal. Instead of handing out a cheque here, Paul Gallagher was taking one from North Van. MP Chuck Cook. The cheque for $9,000 is from Multiculturalism Canada to fund a Labour Studies project entitled "Race and Ethnic Relations in the Workplace." The total grant will be $19,400 and the project will consist of four manuals for union workplace trainers, and workshops on how to use the manuals effectively. The topics covered in the manuals will include the multi-ethnic and multicultural nature of

CONTINUED ...

Music concert Tuesday

This is your last chance for tickets to the Music Department's December Concert at the North Van. Centennial Theatre. The concert is Tuesday, December 4 at 8 pm and tickets are on sale in the Music dept. or at the door for $4 ($2 for students and seniors). The Cap College choir will be performing pieces by Bach, as well as a couple of old pop tunes, and the orchestra will be playing selections by Mendelsohn, Mozart, Lyadov and Grieg. For more info on this call local 454.

Grant cont.

B.C.'s workforce, causes of racism, institutions which support anti-racism and multiculturalism, and how to organize for advocacy skills. Incidentally, our Labour Studies Program is the only publicly supported worker education program in B.C.

Nostalgia Corner

This person hasn't changed so much that you wouldn't recognize him; nonetheless it is interesting to see what Alan Smith looked like back in 1969. And what was he doing in 1969? Working for Capilano College. (Some things never seem to change.) He was the Assistant to the Principal back when Cap was operating out of West Vancouver Secondary School. By the way, don't forget that Information Services will refrain from printing embarrassing old photos on receipt of an acceptable bribe. Are you listening, Conchita?

Studio Art lecture

On Wednesday, Dec. 5 at 9am local artist Joey Morgan will be lecturing to the Studio Art students. This lecture is concurrent with her exhibition at the Charles H. Scott Gallery. Faculty and staff are welcome to attend the class in room A301, but space is limited. Contact Barry Cogswell for further information.

Health Services schedule

Have you been meaning to call or drop into Health Services to see the doctor regarding a health problem? Remember, Dr. Jensen's last day on campus this term will be Tuesday, December 11th. Health Services will remain open through December 21st, but will be closed during the Christmas week. They will reopen on Wednesday, January 2nd. Dr. Jensen will be returning on January 8th and will be on campus every Tuesday and Wednesday as usual during the second semester.

ARC has 'Xmas Special'

There is a free "Christmas Special" workshop being held on Tuesday, December 4 by the Achievement Resource Centre. "How to Improve Your Exam Performance" ought to be of considerable interest to students coming up on final exams. It will be held from 1:30 to 5:30 pm in B103 and can be registered for in ARC or through local 356.

Student Union Events

Parson us, folks, there is no Games Club Social this month, thanks to the North Cafeteria's Christmas Dinner and the annual Christmas party. Free movies continue uninterrupted, however, with the following coming up: Dec. 4 - Never Cry Wolf; Dec. 5 - Deer Hunter; Dec. 11 - Life of Brian; Dec. 12 - History of the World. These are held in the east end of the North Cafe.

Cups for Quarters

Coffee and tea are available in the Staff/Faculty Lounge (H402) on a regular basis at 25¢ a cup. It's for staff and faculty, of course.

Fishy business in Sechelt

Cap College was one of four sponsors of an Aquaculture seminar on the Sunshine Coast last week. The three day event aimed at bankers and investors had such overwhelming response that the location of the sessions had to be moved to larger accommodations.

The College, through Extension Services, also held a four session "Introduction to Fish Farming" course at the Sechelt campus which had over 30 participants. One of the speakers in the course was Peter Crook of Peter Crook (Scotland) Ltd. who specializes in designing complete net cage packages for fish farms. Since the Sunshine Coast Tourism Association is attempting to set up a World Mariculture Showcase for 1986, more courses and events in this field can undoubtedly be expected in the future.

New film series upcoming

The news from the Women's Access Centre is that their fall film series on Focus on Peace was such a success that they'll be doing another film series in the spring. Focus on Sexism in the Media will run on Tuesdays in the open block time starting January 22. By the way, they even had some men turn up for one of the films this fall who got hooked and came for the rest of the series. For more WAC information keep an eye out for their Spring 85 brochure which will be coming out soon.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Beaver Foods is presenting their Christmas Dinner for 1984 in the North Cafeteria on Thursday, December 6. Bring your family and friends to the food and festivities, they suggest. The dinner, which will be served from 11:30 to 1:30 and 4:00 to 7:00 will consist of Roast Tom Turkey with dressings and gravy, Roast Suckling Pig, whipped potatoes, brussel sprouts, baby carrots, jellied and tossed salads, mince tarts, trifle, rolls and butter, coffee or tea and after dinner mints. The price is $4.95/plate, or $3.50 for children and senior citizens.

North Cafe Menu

MONDAY (Dec. 3) - Soup: Napoli - Specials: Roast Pork w/Apple Stuffing, Homestyle Beef Stew, Spaghetti w/Meat Sauce, Roast Turkey sandwich

TUESDAY - Soup: Beef Noodle - Specials: Southern Fried Chicken, Mushroom Quiche, Macaroni & Cheese, Ham & Cheese sandwich

WEDNESDAY - Soup: Scotch Broth - Specials: Virginia Baked Ham w/Pineapple Sauce, Salisbury Steak w/Onion gravy, Ham Casserole, Salami on Rye

THURSDAY - Christmas Dinner

FRIDAY - Cold turkey?

Silly Button Corner

Most of the button slogans that we are going to be reprinting here are actually available through one source or another, so if something really grabs you and you just have to find out how to get it, give us a call at 324.

YOUR MOTHER WEARS NIKES

Caffeine
Recapitulates
Phylogeny

Music concert Tuesday

This is your last chance for tickets to the Music Department's December Concert at the North Van Centre. The concert is Tuesday, December 4, 8:00 and tickets are on sale for the $5.00 concert at the door for the $3.00 concert. The Cap College Choir will be performing pieces by Bach, as well as a couple of old pop tunes, and the orchestra will be playing selections by Mendelssohn, Mozart, Lyadov and Grieg. For more info call 324.

capilano college